

SSSP 128th (2014 Spring) Biannual Conference (May 31 – June 1)

May 31st Program of Plenary Sessions

9:00	Doors Open	【 Building 8 3F East Entrance Lobby】
9:30~11:55	Plenary Sessions	Social Reform Thought and the Present Age: Questioning the Intellectual Foundations of Social Policies 1. Concepts of “the Social” and “the Economic” in the History of Social Policy Ideas in France Takuji TANAKA (Hitotsubashi University) 2. Karl Polanyi and Ideas on Social Reform Re-examined: Controversial Basis of the Market Society 【 Building 8 Room 8304】 Midori WAKAMORI (Osaka City University) 3. Economic and Social Factors in the History of Ideology and Thought in Social Policy in Japan Kingo TAMAI (Aichi Gakuin University)
11:55~13:00	Lunch Break	[Committees]
13:00~16:45	Plenary Sessions	Social Reform Thought and the Present Age: Questioning the Intellectual Foundations of Social Policies Special Lecture Labor and the Double Movement Sanford M. Jacoby (University of California, Los Angeles) 【 Building 8 Room 8304】 Comments Atsushi FUKAZAWA (Ritsumeikan University) Shogo TAKEGAWA (The University of Tokyo) Overall Debates
17:00~18:15	General Meeting	【 Building 8 Room 8304】
18:30~20:30	Social Meeting	【Hilltop 2F】

June 1st Program of Symposium Sessions and General Sessions

9:00	Doors Open		【 Building 5 1F Lobby】
9:30~11:30	Symposium Sessions	1. Methodology of Study on Industrial Unions in Japan	【 Building 5 Room 5201】
		2. Reasonable Accommodation in the Employment of Persons with Disabilities who Find It Difficult to Acquire Reasonable Accommodation	【 Building 5 Room 5202】
		3. Non-regular employment in the field of Education, Childcare, and Public Service and its influence	【 Building 5 Room 5203】
		4. New directions in social welfare policies in Japan	【 Building 5 Room 5406】
	General Sessions	1. Children and Family	【 Building 5 Room 5407】
		2. Labor Market	【 Building 5 Room 5408】
11:30~12:50	Lunch Break	[Committees]
12:50~14:50	Symposium Sessions	5. Studies of Industrial Relations and the Labor Movement of Shin Nihon Chisso(1)	【 Building 5 Room 5201】
		6. Two Questions from the Comparative study about the Social Policy Programs of Colonial Korea	【 Building 5 Room 5202】
		7. Children' s Resiliency against Poverty : based on the research for the care-leavers and in-care staffs	【 Building 5 Room 5407】
		8. How to Cope with the Business Problem of "Disposing" Young Adults --- The Potential in Social Networking(1)	【 Building 5 Room 5203】
	General Sessions	3. Social Solidarity and Social Inclusion	【 Building 5 Room 5406】
		4. Labor Movement and History	【 Building 5 Room 5408】
15:00~17:00	Symposium Sessions	9. Studies of Industrial Relations and the Labor Movement of Shin Nihon Chisso(2)	【 Building 5 Room 5201】
		10. The Employment policies for the disabled persons in France, Sweden, Denmark and Japan - towards the best mix between integration policies and compensation policies for the disabled	【 Building 5 Room 5202】
		11. How to Cope with the Business Problem of "Disposing" Young Adults --- The Potential in Social Networking(2)	【 Building 5 Room 5203】
	General Sessions	5. Care and Medical Treatment	【 Building 5 Room 5407】
		6. Welfare States	【 Building 5 Room 5406】

The Program of May 31st

9 : 30~11 : 55 Plenary Sessions

Social Reform Thought and the Present Age: Questioning the Intellectual Foundations of Social Policies 【Building 8 Room 8304】

Chair : Koichi HIRAOKA (Ochanomizu University) · Kaori KATADA (Hosei University)

1. Concepts of “the Social” and “the Economic” in the History of Social Policy Ideas in France
Takuji TANAKA (Hitotsubashi University)
2. Karl Polanyi and Ideas on Social Reform Re-examined: Controversial Basis of the Market Society
Midori WAKAMORI (Osaka City University)
3. Economic and Social Factors in the History of Ideology and Thought in Social Policy in Japan
Kingo TAMAI (Aichi Gakuin University)

11 : 55~13 : 00 Lunch Break [Committees]

13 : 00~16 : 45 Plenary Sessions

Special Lecture 【Building 8 Room 8304】
Labor and the Double Movement
Sanford M. Jacoby(University of California, Los Angeles)

Comments 1. Atsushi FUKAZAWA (Ritsumeikan University)
2. Shogo TAKEGAWA (The University of Tokyo)

Overall Debates

17 : 00~18 : 15 General Meeting

【Building 8 Room 8304】

18 : 30~20 : 30 Social Meeting

【Hilltop 2F】

The Program of June 1st

9:30~11:30 Symposium Sessions and General Sessions

<Symposium Session 1 >

【Building 5 Room 5201】

Methodology of Study on Industrial Unions in Japan

Chair・Coordinator : Yoshio SASAJIMA (Meiji Gakuin University)
Debater : OH Hak-soo (Japan Institute for Labour Policy and Training)

1. Inter-Company Wage Negotiations and Industrial Unionization
Fumito MATSUMURA (Nagoya City University)
2. Two Case Studies of Inter-Company Wage Negotiations: Metal Working and Marine Transportation
Hiroaki FUJII (Nagoya Sangyo University)
3. Two Case Studies of Inter-Company Wage Negotiations: Coal and Textile
Makio KIMURA (Asahi University)

<Symposium Session 2 >

【Building 5 Room 5202】

Reasonable Accommodation in the Employment of Persons with Disabilities who Find It Difficult to Acquire Reasonable Accommodation

Chair・Coordinator : Kimiko NAGASAWA (University of Kochi)

1. What Are Discrimination on the Basis of Disability and Reasonable Accommodation, and What Should Be Discussed to Solve Inequalities for Persons with Disabilities ?
Masayo TOHYAMA (University of Kochi)
2. The Challenges in Operation and Concept for Practice of Reasonable Accommodation in the Real World
Ritsu YAMAMURA (Nihon University)
3. The Problem and the Vision of Social Employment in East Asian Countries: Including the Viewpoint of Income Assurance for Persons with Disabilities
Hiroshi ISONO (Shizuoka welfare and medical specialized collage)

<Symposium Session 3 >

【Building 5 Room 5203】

Non-regular employment in the field of Education, Childcare, and Public Service and its influence

Chair : Taichi ITO (Osaka University of Economics)
Coordinator : Koichi OGIHARA (Japan Welfare Education College)

1. Protesting and Organizing for Survive : The Waseda union's movement
Taku IMAI (Nihon University)
2. A Case Study of non-regular workers in Private Nursery School—Focusing on Job Specifications and Cooperation among the Workers
Harumi OBI (Graduate Student, Chuo University)
3. Organizing of Non-Regular Local Public Service Workers in U City

Hiroshi UEKI (Ritsumeikan University)

<Symposium Session 4 >

【Building 5 Room 5406】

New directions in social welfare policies in Japan

Chair : Kimihiko ISHIKAWA (Meiji University)

Coordinator : Kazuo TAKADA (Hitotsubashi University・Emeritus Professor)

1. Social values in community organization in Kawasaki, Japan
Miki SUZUKI (Graduate Student, Hitotsubashi University)
2. The Contemporary Issues of Protective Care Services for Women
Chizuko HORI (Josai International University)

<General Session 1 Children and Family>

【Building 5 Room 5407】

Chair : Izumi KIKUCHI (Japan College of Social Work)

1. An Influence of Self-help Groups of Single-mother Families on the Political Process in Japan
-In the case of Welfare Reform in 2000s
Sae OKURA (Graduate Student, University of Tsukuba)
2. Germany's new family policy and the "Mehrgenerationenhaus" project
Yurina UEDA (Graduate Student, Doshisha University)
3. Child well-being in rich countries—UNICEF Innocenti Report Card11: Comparing Japan
Junko TAKEZAWA (National Institute of Population and Social Security Research)

<General Session 2 Labor Market>

【Building 5 Room 5408】

Chair : Wakana SHUTO (Rikkyo University)

1. A Self-support Program and Current Status of labor market in South Korea -Focusing on nursing worker training program
Yuki TOMOOKA (Graduate Student, Ewha Womans University)
2. To what extent is the occupational labor market of professionals formed?: comparing skill formation of IT engineers, scientific researcher and medical professional
Takeshi NISHIMURA (Graduate Student, Kyoto University)

11 : 30~12 : 50 Lunch Break [Committees]

12 : 50~14 : 50 Symposium Sessions and General Sessions

<Symposium Session 5 >

【Building 5 Room 5201】

Studies of Industrial Relations and the Labor Movement of Shin Nihon Chisso(1)

Chair : Atsushi HYODO (Senshu University)

Coordinator : Akira SUZUKI (Hosei University)

1. On the significance of Chisso's Anchin dispute(1962-63) in the development of postwar industrial relations

Yoshinori TOMITA (Saga University)

2. The Struggle against the Blue-/White-collar Status Distinction and Wage Determination at Shin Nihon Chisso

Masanori HANADA (Kumamoto Gakuen University)

<Symposium Session 6 >

【Building 5 Room 5202】

Two Questions from the Comparative study about the Social Policy Programs of Colonial Korea

Chair : Shen Jie (Japan Women's University)

Coordinator : Park Kwang Joon (Bukkyo University)

Debater : Masako OTOMO (Chukyo University)

1. Policy of Special Education in Colonial Korea: Comparison between Korea and Taiwan

Kim Yong Seob (Chosun University)

2. Why did the Homeniin System Lapse in Korea: the Three Explanations

Park Kwang Joon (Bukkyo University)

<Symposium Session 7 >

【Building 5 Room 5407】

Children's Resiliency against Poverty : based on the research for the care-leavers and in-care staffs

Chair・Coordinator : Takafumi UZUHASHI (Doshisha University)

Debater 1 : Masako MUROZUMI (Tezukayama Gakuin University)

Debater 2 : Michihiko TOKORO (Osaka City University)

1. A report on the types of supports given to young care-leavers at residential care homes

Hiromi TANAKA (Graduate Student, Doshisha University)

2. Children with Disadvantage and Difficulties and their ' Independence ' : based on the interviews for in-care staffs

Nobuko MIYATA (Graduate Student, Doshisha University)・Takafumi UZUHASHI (Doshisha University)

3. Children's Care Home Analysis Focusing on the Incidents that Caused Uplifting Self Esteem : From the Interview to Care Leavers of Children's Care Home

Hanako ODAGAWA (Tokyo Metropolitan University)

<Symposium Session 8 >

【Building 5 Room 5203】

How to Cope with the Business Problem of "Disposing" Young Adults --- The Potential in Social Networking(1)

Chair・Coordinator : Yoko TANAKA (University of Tsukuba)

Debater : Mitsuko UENISHI (Hosei University)

1. POSSE's approach concerning evil companies

Shohei SAKAKURA (NPO POSSE)

2. Lawyer's approach concerning evil companies

Chikara SHIMASAKI (Kanagawa Sogo Law Office)

3. Union's approach concerning evil companies

Akai JINBU (Metropol Labor Union of Youth)

<General Session 3 Social Solidarity and Social Inclusion> 【Building 5 Room 5406】

Chair : Takao KOIKE (Senshu University)

1. Spatiotemporal Articulation as Foundations for Social Solidarity

Satoshi TAKAHASHI (Iwate Prefectural University)

2. Social Inclusion for Immigrants and Refugees through Microfinance

Takashi KOSEKI (Meiji University)

3. South Korean Social Enterprise: Change of Meaning or Extension of the Domain?
—Emergence of a New Social Enterprise Policy—

Hong Sungwook (Graduate Student, Tokyo University of Foreign Studies)

<General Session 4 Labor Movement and History> 【Building 5 Room 5408】

Chair : Tachihiko MASUDA (Senshu University)

1. NGG(the German Food, Beverages and Catering Union) and Minimum Wage Regulation

Takuya IWASA (Kobe University)

2. Labor Oral History Archive Project – A focus on making film records and the availability of documents

Osamu UMEZAKI (Hosei University)

15 : 00~17 : 00 Symposium Sessions and General Sessions

<Symposium Session 9>

【Building 5 Room 5201】

Studies of Industrial Relations and the Labor Movement of Shin Nihon Chisso (2)

Chair : Atsushi HYODO (Senshu University)

Coordinator : Akira SUZUKI (Hosei University)

1. The Transformation of Chemical Industry in postwar Japan and its Impact on Chisso and its labor union

Akinori ISOGAI (Kyushu University)

2. Analysis of the coalition building between the Shin Nihon Chisso Labor Union and the organizations of Minamata disease victims and their supporters

Akira SUZUKI (Hosei University)

<Symposium Session 10>

【Building 5 Room 5202】

The Employment policies for the disabled persons in France, Sweden, Denmark and Japan —towards the best mix between integration policies and compensation policies for the disabled persons —

Chair・Coordinator : Katsuhiko IWATA (The Japan Institute for Labor policy and Training)

Debater : Ryosuke MATSUI (Hosei University)

- 1 . 2013 Disability policy reforms in Denmark in the context of Danish flexicurity
Katsuhiko IWATA (The Japan Institute for Labor policy and Training)
- 2 . Revision and new orientation of labor market policies for the people with disabilities
Noriko KURUBE (Nihon Fukushi University)
- 3 . New law on the equality of rights and chances for disabled persons as citizen(2005) and Labor policy

Hiroshi OHSONE (The Open University of Japan)

<Symposium Session 1 1 >

【Building 5 Room 5203】

How to Cope with the Business Problem of “Disposing” Young Adults --- The Potential in Social Networking(2)

Chair・Coordinator : Yoko TANAKA (University of Tsukuba)

Debater : Mitsuko UENISHI (Hosei University)

Overall Debates

<General Session 5 Care and Medical Treatment>

【Building 5 Room 5407】

Chair : Mayumi OHSHIO (Ryukoku University)

- 1 . "The Appropriate use of drug “ in the drug policy after 1992
Kazuko AKAGI (Graduate Student, Hitotsubashi University)
- 2 . Non Profit Organization’s Strategies on the Original Home Help Services
Sumika YAMANE (Yamagata University)
- 3 . The process and problems of long-term care benefits complicated
Takashi MIHARA (The Tokyo Foundation)・Atsuaki GUNJI (The Tokyo Foundation)

<General Session 6 Welfare States>

【Building 5 Room 5406】

Chair : Min Zhu (Chiba University of Commerce)

- 1 . Socio-economic issues in Hong Kong: current situation of ‘positive non-interventionism’
Katsuhide ISA (Seinan Gakuin University)
- 2 . Sovereign Debt Crises and Social Spending – How did European Countries Cope with the Crises?

Yoshinori ITO (Hitotsubashi University)